DOCUMENT RETENTION AND DESTRUCTION POLICY

Purpose

In accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, which makes it a crime to alter, cover up, falsify, or destroy any document with the intent of impeding or obstructing any official proceeding, this policy provides for the systematic review, retention, and destruction of documents received or created by 1000 Friends of Florida in connection with the transaction of organizational business. This policy covers all records and documents, regardless of the physical form, contains guidelines for how long certain documents should be kept, and how records should be destroyed (unless under a legal hold). The policy is designed to ensure compliance with federal and state laws and regulations, to eliminate accidental or innocent destruction or records, and to facilitate 1000 Friends of Florida operations by promoting efficiency and freeing up valuable storage space.

Therefore, any electronic files, including records of donations made online, that fall into one of the document types on the above schedule will be maintained for the appropriate amount of time. If a user has sufficient reason to keep an e-mail message, the message should be printed in hard copy and kept in the appropriate file or moved to an “archive” computer file folder. Backup and recovery methods will be tested on a regular basis.

Emergency Planning

1000 Friends of Florida’s records will be stored in a safe, secure, and accessible manner. Documents and financial files that are essential to keeping 1000 Friends of Florida operating in an emergency will be duplicated or backed up at least every week and maintained off-site. 1000 Friends of Florida’s computer files on the “shared” drive, as well as the Membership Database, are backed up onsite and offsite daily.

Document Destruction

1000 Friends of Florida’s President is responsible for the ongoing process of identifying its records, which have met the required retention period, and overseeing their destruction. Destruction of financial and personnel-related documents will be accomplished by shredding.

Destruction of relevant documentation will be suspended immediately, upon any indication of an official investigation or when a lawsuit is filed or appears imminent. Destruction will be reinstated upon conclusion of the investigation.
Compliance

Failure on the part of employees to follow this policy can result in possible civil and criminal sanctions against 1000 Friends of Florida and its employees and possible disciplinary action against responsible individuals. The president and vice president of administration will periodically review these procedures with legal counsel or the organization's certified public accountant to ensure that they are in compliance with new or revised regulations.

Acknowledgment:

I have read the above provisions of the 1000 Friends of Florida's Document Retention and Destruction Policy and hereby agree to abide by the provisions thereof.
